Escape to Create

What is the deadline?

Applications must be received by June 15, 2010. Artists will be emailed confirmation upon receipt of complete application and processing fee. Applications are reviewed by a panel of professional peers who represent each applicable discipline. Artists will be notified of the committee's decision no later than August 1, 2010. Please note that application materials will not be returned.

How do artists apply?

We encourage on-line application and will also accept mailed applications. All applications must contain the following eight items:

1. The completed 2011 application form
2. A one-page cover letter that includes artist statement, a brief description of your work and reasons how this residency would impact your creative work
3. A one-page work proposal detailing the creative work to be accomplished during the residency
4. A one-page community service proposal that provides a detailed description with desired outcome.
5. A professional resume
6. Two professional letters of recommendation sent directly to Escape to Create.
7. A non-refundable $50 processing fee
8. Work samples must be representative of recent work. Please send only the materials as requested below:

Writers of fiction, non-fiction, film, theatre and scholarship: Submit one complete chapter or short story or no more than 30 numbered, double spaced pages.

Poets: Submit 10 poems not to exceed 30 numbered double-spaced pages. Please do not send published books.

Visual artists: Submit 10 jpeg images no larger than 1,000 pixels on the longest side of each sample and no files larger than 1MB. Each sample should be numbered and identified by title, medium and size.

Performance and video art: Provide a link to your work sample that is no longer than 15 minutes with a one-page written summary.

Musical Composition: Submit CD or mp3-formatted fifteen minute sample accompanied by a one-page explanation.

Collaborative Partnerships: Individual applications must be submitted.
